

Will Foote, 95 year old peace activist, war-time detention camp inmate, author and schoolteacher, has written several books on peace issues. This latest one point out in concise, simply written language the futility and appalling human cost of wars and the need to apply the principle of love in both personal and international affairs.

- ❖ World War I: Gallipoli and a "wrong" war
- ❖ World War II: an avoidable war
- ❖ Wars of the Gulf, Vietnam and Afghanistan
- ❖ The arms Trade
- ❖ Non-violent peace action
- ❖ The common morality of the love that binds us regardless of race, religion or nationality
- ❖ Examples of actions that "fill our hearts with gladness:"

Foreword by Dr Kate Dewes, NZ Representative on the UN Secretary General's Advisory Board on Disarmament.
