

Peace Past - Peace Future

You are warmly invited to attend our Peace Symposium -

Organised by Aotearoa New Zealand Peace and Conflict Studies Centre Trust

SATURDAY, OCTOBER 27 from 9.30am – 3pm

Otago University Centre, 385 Queen Street, Auckland City

Opening by Sir Paul Reeves

Session One. Living Peace Covenants: How can the indigenous peace movements of the Moriori and Parihaka contribute to conflict resolution in the world today? Presentations by Maui Solomon of Hokotehi Moriori Trust "The Moriori Peace Covenant" and Ruakere Hond from Parihaka "Parihaka: in search of peace".

Session Two. Challenges Posed by Military Aggression: Presentations and panel with Arthur Palmer, George Armstrong, Maire Leadbeater and Edwina Hughes.

Session Three. Potential for Peace Teaching: Presentations and panel with Shareen Shah. Yvonne Duncan and the students of Mt Roskill Grammar School will present on "The Contribution of New Zealand Youth to the Greatest Challenge of the 21st Century – Conflict Resolution".

Session Four. Growing a Field of Peace – Interfaith Peacebuilding: How can the different faiths work together in practical peace building? Presentation and panel with Ali Jiang, Tipene Daniels and Greg Hughson.

The purpose of this Symposium is to develop the relationship between existing peace groups and the new National Peace and Conflict Studies Centre and to explore how the Centre's research may assist with peaceful resolution of conflicts in the world today.

Registration. As space is limited please register early.
Email Registration by October 24 to anzpcsc@ihug.co.nz
Phone Enquiries to 09 815 0228

Admission by Koha

A simple lunch will be provided

