

Claim the Future - build peace together

June 28-29, 2019 in Christchurch

Venue: Community of the Sacred Name, 300 Tuam St, Christchurch.

Hosted by the Anglican Pacifist Fellowship.

Suggested minimum koha: $20 per day.

Register your name and which day/s you will attend at: peaceconf2019chch@gmail.com

Friday June 28

- 9am Following the Non-Violent Jesus – the Christian way. Fr Jim Consedine
- 10am Peace issues and initiatives in your community
- 10:25 Justice & Peace for Palestine (5 minute hotspot). Lois Griffiths
- 10:30 Morning tea
- 11am The continuing challenge of the Just War theory. Chris Barfoot
- 11:40 World Beyond War presented by national co-ordinator Liz Remmerswell
- Noon Litany of Reconciliation from Coventry Cathedral
- 12:15 Simple lunch provided
- 1:30pm NZ Anglican Pacifist Fellowship AGM. Members and interested others welcome.
- Free time until 7pm.

- 7pm A Pacifist Response to White Nationalist Violence Richard Jackson
*Director of the National Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies/
Te Ao O Rongomaraeroa, Otago University.*
Richard will explore the reasons for, and causes of, the growing number of white supremacist terrorist attacks; how the dominant “war on terror” model has failed to deal effectively with terrorism; how pacifism and creative nonviolence provides a number of ways of responding to white nationalist violence that are more ethical and potentially more effective than the war on terror model.

Saturday June 29, 2019 from 9am-3pm

- 9am Opening worship
- 9:15 A Theological Basis for Aroha - a response to March 15 Chris Barfoot
- 10:20 Inaugural “Cross of Nails Sunday”, Sept 29, 2019 (5 minute hotspot) Indrea
- 10:30 Morning tea
- 10:45 Costs and consequences of militarism in times of peace. Edwina Hughes
- 11:35 Peace Tax (5 minute hotspot) Deborah Williams
- 11:45 Freedom Flotillas Lois Griffiths
- 12:45 Simple lunch provided
- 1:30 A Pacifist Response to Climate Change and Wealth Inequality Richard Jackson,
*Director of the National Centre for Peace and Conflict Studies/
Te Ao O Rongomaraeroa, Otago University.*
Why climate change and wealth inequality are the world’s greatest current challenges, and how they threaten to increase levels of global violence, including the violence of white nationalists. Richard will explore how pacifism and nonviolence can help to generate the kind of radical social change needed, while providing an ethical and philosophical foundation for a more peaceful society that can better deal with conflict and disruptions in nonviolent ways.
- 2:20 World Without War: War Abolition 101 (5 minutes hotspot) Deborah Williams
- 2:30 Closing Worship – Go in Peace.