

LAW, VIOLENCE & HUMAN NATURE

A Biblical & Theological Perspective

Anglican Pacifist Fellowship

Open Day

Saturday 22 November

All Saints' Church Lounge,
284 Ponsonby Rd,
Ponsonby, Auckland

9.15 am Registration

9.30 am Father Peter Murnane,
O.P., Dominican Friar:
*"A time to keep laws and a time to disobey them
– Civil Disobedience and Civil Resistance in the age of private and government terrorism"*

11 am Morning tea

11.30 am Dr Chris Marshall, St John's Senior Lecturer in Christian Theology, Religious Studies Department, Victoria University of Wellington: "The Lord said to Cain, 'Why are you angry?' Biblical Perspectives on Anger and Violence"

1 pm Lunch

2 pm Dr Nicola Hoggard-Creegan, Laidlaw College: "A Theological Critique of the Seville (and Unesco-adopted) Statement on Violence (that human nature or human biological nature is not conditioned for violence): The Way Forward"

3.30 pm Afternoon Tea

4 pm Panel discussion with speakers.

Charge: $20 (includes lunch, morning and afternoon tea)

Please register by Monday 17 November with APF Secretary Chris Barfoot, 09 575 6142 or <barfoots@xtra.co.nz>

