<sup>1</sup> Notes on using the cover page:

1. The cover page could be used as a complement to submitting detailed forms adopted at the Meetings of the States parties in instances when the information to be provided in some of the forms in an annual report is the same as in past reports. That is, when using the cover page, only forms within which there is new information would need to be submitted.
2. The cover page could be used as a substitute for submitting detailed forms adopted at the Meetings of the States parties only if all of the information to be provided in an annual report is the same as in past reports.
3. If an indication is made on the cover sheet that the information to be provided with respect to a particular form would be unchanged in relationship to a previous year's form, the date of submission of the previous form should be clearly indicated.
4. The cover page may be used for subsequent annual reports and is not to be used for the initial Article 7 report submission.

Form A National implementation measures

Article 7, paragraph 1

“Each State Party shall report to the Secretary-General ... on:

(a) The national implementation measures referred to in article 9;”

Remark: In accordance with article 9 “Each State Party shall take all appropriate legal, administrative and other measures to implement this Convention, including the imposition of penal sanctions, to prevent and suppress any activity prohibited to a State Party under this Convention undertaken by persons or on territory under its jurisdiction or control.”

State Party: New Zealand.....

Reporting for time period from 1 Jan 2016..... to ...31 December 2016.....

| Legal, administrative and other measures taken to implement the CCM(including imposition of penal sanctions)   | Supplementary information(e.g., text and effective date of implementation measures, including legislation, administrative measures, policies and directives, training of military forces)  |
|--|--|
| The Financial Markets Conduct Act enacted in 2013 governs how financial products are created, promoted and sold in New Zealand. Issuers of financial products and managed investment schemes which operate under the Act were required to transition to the new regime by 1 December 2016. Under these new arrangements, issuers are now required to disclose a list of individual assets of each of their funds on a six monthly basis and include this information on a publicly available Disclose Register. | Enhanced provision of information to investors under the new disclosure regime helps ensure that investments made by funds will not be used for the development or production of cluster munitions, as required by Section 10 (2) of the Cluster Munition Prohibition Act 2009, which implements the Convention in New Zealand. |
