

Advocacy for peace and justice at the UN

You are invited to a public meeting with

Sr Margaret Mayce

Dominican Leadership Conference / Dominican Sisters International NGO representative at the United Nations

Margaret Mayce is a member of the Sisters of St. Dominic, Amityville, NY. She served on her Congregation's leadership team from 2001-2007, and during this time also served on the national board of the Leadership Conference of Women Religious as chair of Region 2 (New York State).

In her capacity as Dominican Leadership Conference / Dominican Sisters International NGO representative at the UN, she collaborates with other NGOs to focus attention on UN issues and initiatives in support of the eradication of poverty, human rights for all, sustainable, people-centred economic and social development, and the elimination of all forms of violence against women and girls. Margaret has a B.A. in Sociology from Molloy College, New York, and an MA in International Political Economic Development from Fordham University, Bronx, New York; and

Edwina Hughes

Coordinator, Peace Movement Aotearoa

Edwina is the author of 11 NGO reports to UN human rights treaty bodies and Special Procedures, and co-author of the combined 'Treaty of Waitangi and indigenous peoples' rights' NGO submissions for New Zealand's first and second Universal Periodic Review.

At 7pm, Friday 5 September 2014
Pompallier Centre, 30 New Street
Ponsonby, Auckland

Organised by Pax Christi, for more information
tel 09 377 5541 email paxchristi@xtra.co.nz
www.facebook.com/pax.christi.7

