You are invited to join us for a screening of:

'War Redefined' from the Women, War and Peace series

The capstone of the Women, War and Peace series, 'War Redefined' challenges the conventional wisdom that war and peace are men's domain through incisive interviews with leading thinkers, US Secretaries of State and seasoned survivors of war and peace-making. Their experiences reveal how the post-Cold War proliferation of small arms has changed the landscape of war, with women becoming primary targets and suffering unprecedented casualty rates. Simultaneously, they describe how women are emerging as necessary partners in brokering lasting peace and as leaders in forging new international laws governing conflict.

'War Redefined' features probing conversations with US Secretary of State Hillary Clinton and former Secretaries of State Condoleezza Rice and Madeleine Albright, Liberian peace activist Leymah Gbowee, Bosnian war crimes investigator Fadila Memisevic, Founder of Women for Women International Zainab Salbi; globalisation expert Moisés Naím; and Cynthia Enloe of Clark University, among others. Narrated by Geena Davis.
